

FIFTY FINE HORSES ENTERED FOR STAKE EVENTS OF BIG FAIR

Splendid Track Contests Are Assured for Annual Exposition Here.

Fifty speedy horses have been entered for the big stake races for $1,000 each at the Central West Virginia fair to be held on the big exposition grounds here August 31, September 1, 2 and 3. Included are several local horses which have been making good elsewhere on the celebrated Lake Erie trotting circuit, of which the Central West Virginia fair is a member. The entries for the stake events, of which there will be one each day of the fair, have been closed, but entries for the various other track events, 10 of which will be for purses of $500 each, will remain open until Thursday.

HANDSOME IS NEW HOME OF CAIRO MASONS

Interesting Items from Ritchie County Told in a Breezy News Letter.

ELLENBORO, Aug. 21.—The Cairo lodge No. 114, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, has moved in its handsome new home in the Haddock building, where it has fine quarters, occupying half of the top story of the building. The lodge room proper takes up two-thirds of the space; the balance of the space is converted into an up-to-date kitchen, fully equipped, and a handsome dining room in which has been installed fine china and silverware. A parlor, or rest room occupies the remaining space. The Masonic fraternity of Cairo now has a home of which it may well feel proud.

The following executive committee has been appointed to arrange for Evangelist William Asher's revival meetings which will be held at Parkersburg during the month of September: the Revs. Warren Hodges, J. A. Young, W. N. Frasure and Judge Homer B. Woods, S. A. Powell, P. R. Tharp, J. N. Pierpoint, Elijah Weekley and Robert Morris. The Rev. W. N. Frasure was named chairman and the Rev. A. Young, secretary. Evangelist Asher and his estimable wife have many warm friends in Ritchie county, and the success of the series of meetings is assured.
